

SOCIETY

Princess Kaiulani and twenty of her friends will witness the base ball game that will be played by the members of the Legislature. On this occasion the Princess will be the home team, having selected twenty-two players. The party met at the Alexander Young Hotel at two-thirty this afternoon and started to the Athletic Park. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. James Doughtery; Mr. and Mrs. Williamson; Mr. C. D. Wright; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Childs; Miss Irene Dickson; Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton Blane; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Abing and others.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Eric Knudsen's Tennis Tea.

Mrs. Eric Knudsen was the hostess at an enjoyable tennis tea. Both the hostess and Senator Knudsen are on the battle front players at this interesting game. A number of closely contested sets were played Saturday afternoon.

The tennis courts at the Hotel Plaza are excellent and afford much amusement for their guests. The keepers who watched the games were most enthusiastic after the afternoon delectable refreshments were served. Tea was poured by the charming hostess.

★ ★ ★

Senator and Mrs. Knudsen's Dinner.

Senator and Mrs. Eric Knudsen entertained Saturday evening at the Hotel Plaza. In the center of the large circular table was placed a gold basket filled with La France roses. The place cards were ornamented with bows and tied with pink ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Knudsen's dinner was the incentive for this delightful entertainment. It was given prior to their moving into their new home in Manoa Valley. Among Senator and Mrs. Knudsen's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kekuewa Marx and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ormond Wall's Bridge.

Mrs. Ormond Wall entertained at three tables of bridge Friday afternoon.

The prizes were exquisite enclosed telephone books. The tables were arranged on the floor.

Later in the afternoon delectable refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mrs. Overend, Mrs. Theodore Lansing, Mrs. Scherzer, Mrs. Grossman, Mrs. Nelson R. Lansing, Mrs. Philip Peck, Mrs. Jerny, Mrs. Gartenberg, Mrs. L. M. Whitehouse, Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. Frank McStockier and others.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Macfarlane's Luncheon.

Mrs. Frederick Macfarlane entertained informally at the Country Club

Tuesday in honor of Mrs. and Miss St. Goar of San Francisco, who were enroute on the Maru en route to Japan. Mrs. Macfarlane and her guests motored to the attractive Country Club where a delicious luncheon awaited them. Among those present were the Baron and Baroness Tuerke, Mrs. St. Goar, Miss St. Goar and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane.

★ ★ ★

Tuesday evening a jolly dinner was given at the Union Grill. This was a "shellfish" dinner for all the courses were of oysters, turtle and different varieties of fish. This affair resembled the "Lake Shore" dinner that they have in the East. Everything was deliciously cooked and beautifully served. Among those served at this dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth and Mr. and Mrs. Wood of Hawaii.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Harry Macfarlane has been spending the past ten days with Mrs.

Henry Macfarlane at Ahuimanu. Mrs. Harry Macfarlane motored to town Monday when she and her husband entered on that evening at dinner, complimentary to Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Samuel Wadsworth Downing. Mrs. Macfarlane remained at Ahuimanu Thursday and will spend the next two weeks at that delightful vacation home.

Colonel Wilder the new commandant of Schofield Barracks, arrived on the transport Crook and has been given a royal welcome by Honolulu society folk. For this gallant officer is not a stranger in "Hawaii Net" having visited here several times in the past. He is distantly connected with the Wilder family of these islands and is personal friend of Doctor and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse. Colonel Wilder is one of the most popular officers of the U. S. Army he deserves this popularity for he is courteous and considerate of everyone and possesses wonderful magnetism.

★ ★ ★

Wednesday Bridge Club.

The Wednesday Bridge Club met with Mrs. Wilcox, this week. The tables were arranged on the large lawn. Later in the afternoon delectable refreshments were served in the lawn at a round table ornamented with pale lavender asters. After the refreshments the prizes were awarded and were won by Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Pratt. The prizes were a handsome brass candle stick and a heavy brass tray. The full complement of members were present.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hanforth of Seattle.

Mrs. Hanforth of Seattle, Washington is visiting Captain and Mrs. Oregon at their attractive home at Schofield Barracks. The latter is a daughter of Mrs. Hanforth.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Clifford B. High.

Mrs. Clifford B. High who has been in California for the past four months is expected to return to her home in May. Mrs. High will be accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Emma May.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Walter Macfarlane.

Mrs. Walter Macfarlane is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Macfarlane, at their Walkit home.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Molyside.

Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Molyside entertained at dinner at the Sensible Hotel, Monday evening, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown. Pale pink carnations and maiden hair ferns ornamented the table. Later the hostesses and their guests attended the dance that was given at the Sensible Hotel on that evening.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Claire Williams.

Mrs. Claire Williams is visiting her sister Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Dodge Marx, at their delightful home on Wylie Street.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Thomas King.

Mrs. Thomas King, has been spending four or five days with the Clifford Kimballs at Haleiwa, while the transport was in Honolulu.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Scott and Miss Margaret Scott of Hilo.

Mrs. Scott and Miss Margaret Scott of Hilo, are guests at the Alexander Young Hotel. Mrs. Scott and her attractive young daughter are well known in Honolulu and are being extensively entertained.

★ ★ ★

Miss Ethelwyn Castle.

Miss Ethelwyn Castle is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Richard Castle. Miss Castle resides at the beach, this visit in town enables her many friends to see more of her.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Harry Macfarlane.

Mrs. Harry Macfarlane has been spending the past ten days with Mrs.

MISS ALICE EDITH BRUNÉ

A picture appears in the society columns of little Miss Alice Edith Bruné the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bruné, who is second in the automobile contest, conducted by the Honolulu Amusement Company. This winsome maid has hosts of friends and wins everyone by her sweet disposition. Her friends are working diligently for her—this is necessary no stone should be left unturned to make her the successful competitor in this competition. Miss Bruné is the niece of Mrs. Frederick Macfarlane of this city. At the Chrystie Musicale that was given last week at the home of Princess Kaiulani, little Miss Alice assisted the Princess Kapilani in passing the baskets to receive the contributions for this worthy affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice of Kauai are visiting in town and are being extensively entertained by their numerous friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Lieutenant Ely of the Fifth Cavalry was in town Monday. Lieutenant Ely is a great friend of Lieutenant Bump. The latter officer entertained on board the U. S. S. Dix on Monday in his honor.

Mrs. John Angus and the Misses Angus are spending the week on Tantalus, and are keeping "open house" for their friends.

Mrs. Minnie Phillips' two children and her house guest, Mrs. Meyer, of San Francisco, are spending ten days on Tantalus.

Lieutenant Bump's Dinner.

Lieutenant Bump, Quartermaster Captain of the transport Dix, entertained at an elaborate dinner, Monday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dowling. Covers were arranged for eight, the table was prettily decorated with red carnations and maltese crosses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl du Roi will be home coming passengers on the twenty-fourth of this month. Mrs. du Roi has fully recovered from her recent serious illness.

Mrs. C. O. Berner, her daughters Mrs. Mennell and Miss Minna Berger, are occupying the Jack Dowsett home during the latter's absence.

Mr. Frederick Wichman is an expected passenger in the May steamer, coming home to spend his vacation with his parents.

Mrs. D. M. Day and Mrs. George Davidson will sail on the next Wilhelmina for a trip to Hawaii, where they will visit the Volcano of Kilauea.

The James Doughterys are building an artistic bungalow in Manoa Valley.

Mrs. Leo L. Sexton, wife of Dr. Sexton, is visiting in Honolulu. This active young matron was Miss Alice of Kauai. A number of social affairs are being planned in her honor, but on account of the Lenten season these entertainments will be more or less informal.

Captain Forsythe motored in from Leilehua Monday. This popular officer was tendered an elaborate luncheon at the University Club.

Captain and Mrs. Seales of the Fifth Cavalry spent Monday and Tuesday in town at the Alexander Young Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Petrie are living in Manoa Valley, having rented a beautiful home which commands an unobstructed view of the sea and the mountains.

Mr. John B. Alexander of Lihue, Kauai, arrived Sunday in town, on the Kinai, and is staying at the Alexander Young Hotel.

Mr. A. R. Hughes, a prominent capitalist of Victoria, B. C., arrived in Honolulu Saturday and has taken apartments at the Alexander Young Hotel.

Mrs. Cunningham, wife of Lieutenant Cunningham, was in Honolulu on Monday. It is regretted that this popular young army woman does not come in town often, for she has hosts of friends who are always delighted to see her.

Mrs. Christian Conrad left this week for her home on Molokai. Mrs. Conrad was accompanied by the Princess Kaiulani's three children and their nurses. These attractive children will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad while their mother is in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robbins Anderson have leased the Hawaia bungalow in Manoa Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Whitehouse will move into their new residence on Wylie street the first of the week.

SUNDAY SERVICES

CENTRAL UNION CHURCH.

9:30 a. m. Bible School—Mr. W. A. Bowen, Superintendent. Men's League Bible Class—Rev. A. A. Ebersole, Teacher. Women's Society Bible Class—Prof. J. W. Gilmore, Teacher. 11:45 a. m. Morning Worship—Sermon by Rev. Doremus Scudder, "The Business Point of View." 6:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor Meeting—in charge of Prayer Meeting Committee, subject: "Lessons from the Events of Passion Week." 7:30 p. m. Evening Service—Special Musical program: "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by large chorus choir. The general public is invited.

Music lovers will want to attend the special musical service which will be given at Central Union church tomorrow night.

The choir has been enlarged for the occasion.

There will be several solos and duets besides the full chorus numbers.

The following singers will participate:

Double Quartet—Sopranos: Mrs. R. H. Allen, Miss Bertha L. Kemp; Tenors: Arthur F. Wall, Chester G. Livingston; Alto: Mrs. C. S. Wright; Basses: Geo. A. Mrs. C. J. Hunn, Basses: Geo. A.

Mr. Hudson of Los Angeles will sing at the morning service.

ST. ANDREW'S.

St. Andrew's Cathedral Palm Sunday—At 11 o'clock service Canon Ault will be the speaker. At 7:30 p. m. the Bishop will confirm a large class presented by Canon Ault and the Rev. L. Kroll and the sermon will be "Practical Religion."

In the morning the Bishop will administer Confirmation at St. Peter's Church.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

First Methodist Episcopal church, corner of Beretania Avenue and Victoria street, Sunday services:

Sabbath school—9:45 a. m. Morning worship—11 o'clock. Flaworth League—6:30 p. m. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. A. A. Ebersole will preach at the morning hour.

The evening service will be conducted by C. J. Day. It will be a service in honor of Fanny Crosby, the famous hymn writer of Brooklyn. She has sent a special letter to lovers of her hymns in Honolulu. This service is largely a repetition of the one conducted by the Oahu Young People's Union a few weeks ago and is repeated by request. All are invited.

Mr. Hudson of Los Angeles will sing at the morning service.

Set of Dinner Dishes

This prize is representative of the Household Department of E. O. Hall & Sons. A complete set worthy of any dining table in the land.

Twenty-Five Pounds of Sweet Shop Chocolates

If you haven't tasted Sweet Shop chocolates perhaps you won't appreciate this prize. But if you have you will know they are worth a good strong effort.

Boudoir Piano